ORGANIZATIONS

Standing: Samples, Matter, Akers, Larson, Nicholson.
Seated: Coffey, Rumpf, Aumen, Eutermoser.

The Student Council

Student body business affairs are handled by the capable and duly elected members of the Student Council, four of whom are Seniors, three Juniors, two Sophomores, and one a freshman. The Student Council apportions student funds to the best advantage of the student body as a whole and supervises the arrangements for and the execution of the traditional student and cultural activities.

BILL AKERS
President

Front Row: Eutermoser, Stevens, Medrano, Coffey.
Middle Row: Deibert, Ballmer, R., Prof. Long, Perrott, Rumpf, Griswold.
Back Row: Aumen, Geldbach, Cafarelli, Husing, Hunt, J. Ballmer, D., Hansen, V. Gregory

Cooney Mining Club

The A.I.M.E. Affiliated Student Society of the New Mexico School of Mines is the Cooney Mining Club. This organization has had field trips as well as talks by men of recognized professional attainment, and movies on technical subjects. This club is the oldest extra-curricular organization on the campus.

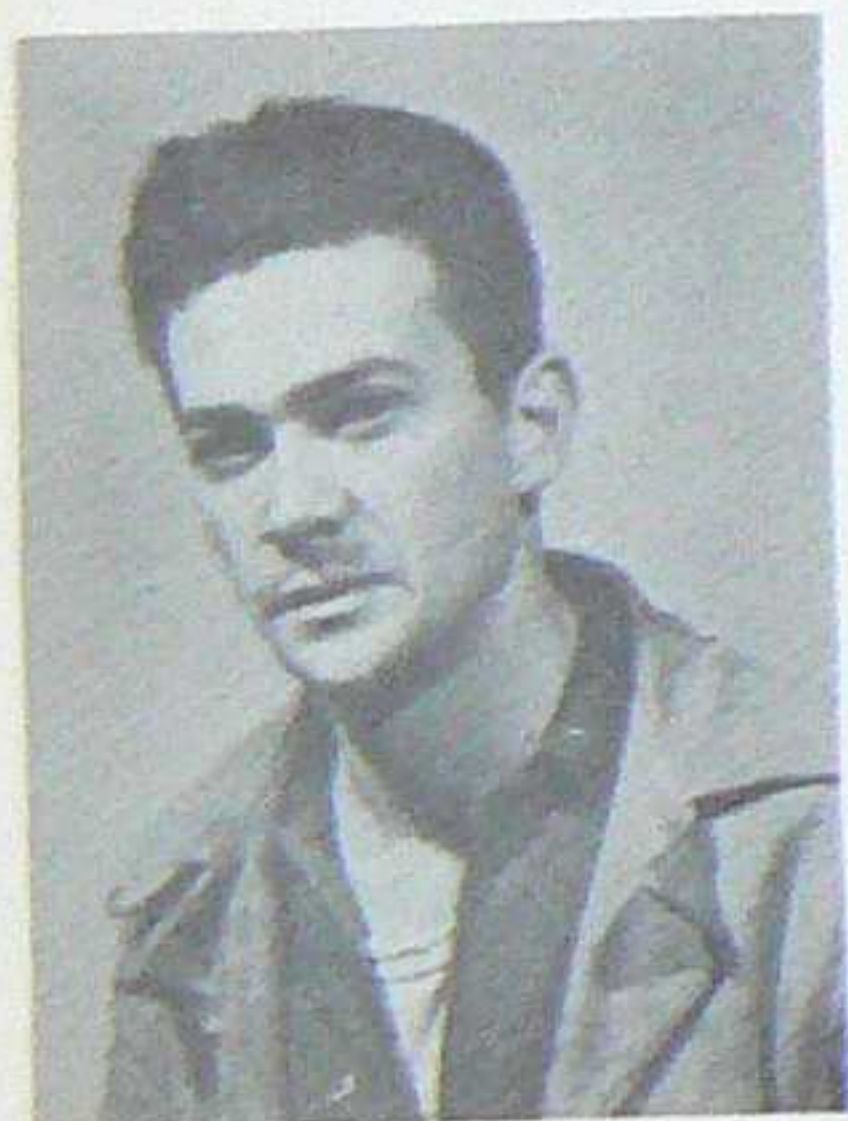

RAY W. BALLMER
President

Standing: Costin, Clough, Pichetto, Ballmer, D., Husing. Seated: Hill, R., Sykes, Kobelin, Delbert, Hartwick.

The Photography Club

JOEL KOBELIN
President

The Photography Club has a fine record on the campus. It is quite busy in helping the other organizations on the campus. The dark room is in Brown Hall and is in constant use.

Seated: Peterson, Jonas, Bach, Medrano. Standing: O'Connor, Hill, R., Avery, Silvertooth.

The Rifle Club

LYNN SILVERTOOTH
President

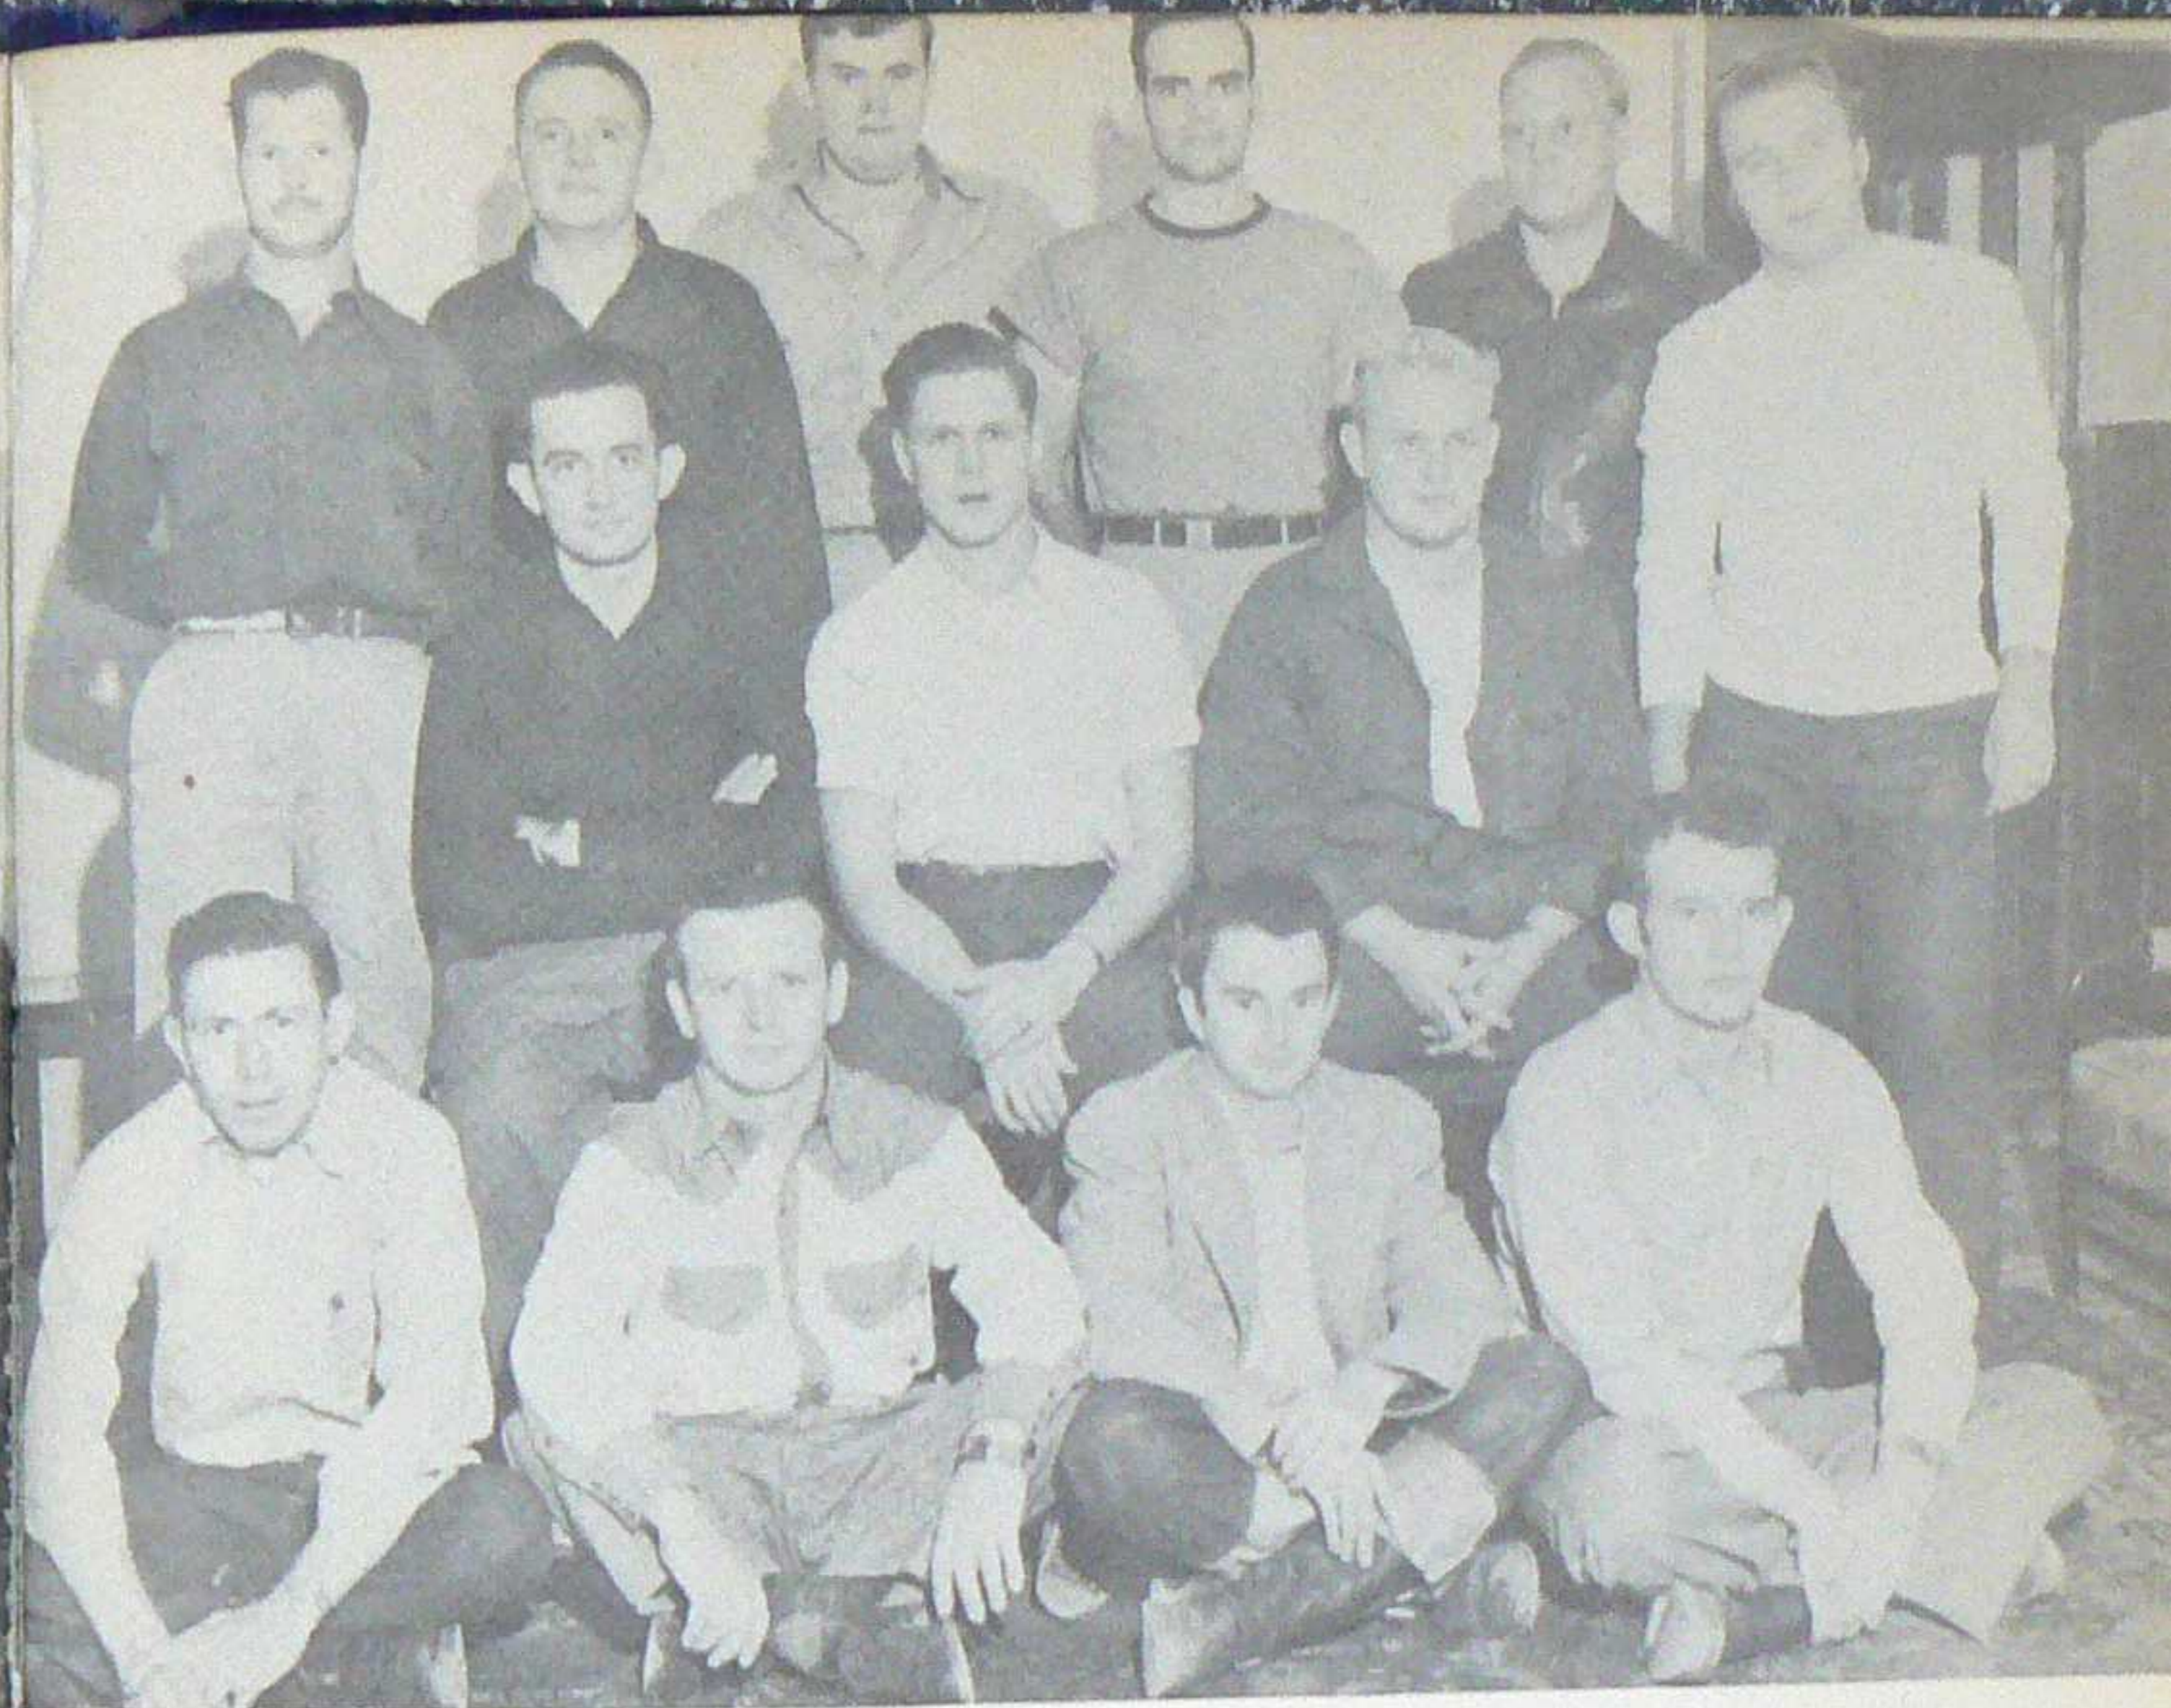

The Rifle Club is associated with the National Rifle Association. Facilities include several excellent out range locations as well as the privilege of using the Armory indoor rifle range. The future of the club lies within the members themselves.

George Brewer, James Doherty, Henry Karnes.

The "M" Club

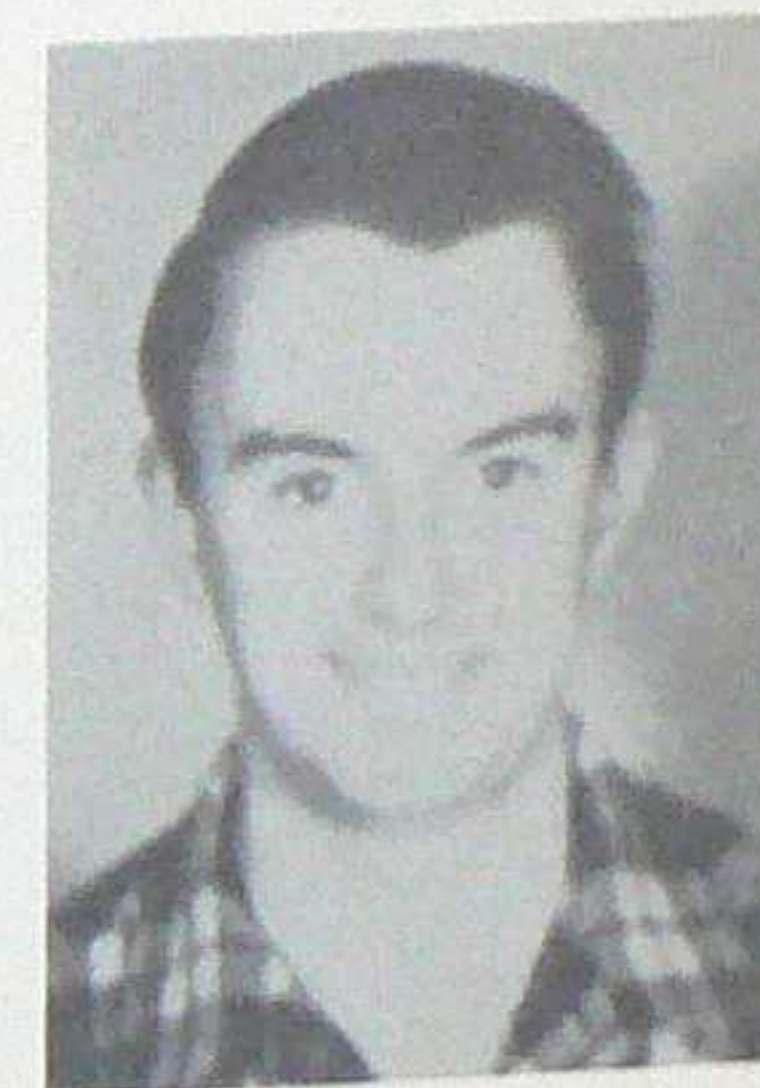

Three years without intercollegiate athletic competition have reduced the membership of the "M" Club to three, all of which are seniors.

Front Row: Hartwick, Rumpf, Frank, Coombe. Middle Row: Diebert, Williams, Ed., Bach. Rear Row: McLaughlin, Hansen, V., Silvertooth, Hill, P. Patscheck, Lockwood.

The Lapidary Club

This club is primarily for those interested in minerals and the polishing of stones. The knowledge to be gained by the constant working with minerals is invaluable in the studies of mineralogy and associated subjects. This club has many advantages for the amateur geologist and with the gain of a suitable workshop has unlimited possibilities.

CHARLES FRANKS
President

Front Row: Coffey, Houlehan, Ballmer, Burand, Harper, Hunt, Aumen, Daniels, Kuck.
 Middle Row: Meahl, Blass, Pickett, O'Connor, McIlvary, Reece, Barber, Johnson,
 Senn, Kerley, Nutter. Standing: Hill, Fleishman, Avery, Deibert, Watson, Keller, Balentine, Duncan, Harty, Eutermoser, Dismant, Beckerdite, Schufle, Richter, Harper, Wilkening, Colston, Peterson, Forrey.

Dames Club

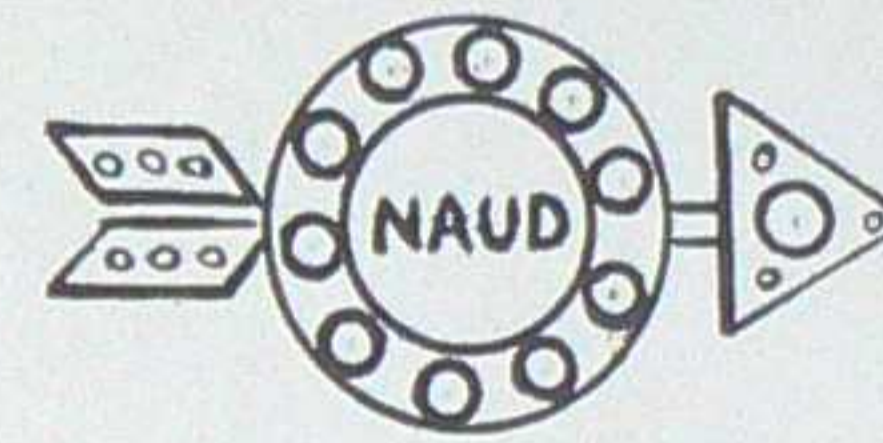

The Dames Club is an organization for the wives and mothers of the students. Although it has been a part of the school for some years, in the last four it has had a large and active membership. Besides the bi-monthly meetings, the club has other interesting an intellectual entertainment.

PAULINE HILL
 Vice President

MARGARET DANIELS
 President

BETTY MEAHL
 Treasurer

LOIS BLASS
 Secretary

OFFICERS

Front Row: Schneider, Meadows, Pichetto, Webb, Chirichetti, Craddock, Falk, Saleem., Middle Row: Webber, Mahoney, Sheridan, Schropp, Bach, Kerley, Johnson, R., Valescu. Standing: Williams, Ed., Larsen, Janet, Janet, Piper, Yarbrough, King, Noland, Yuronka, Galli, Wilson.

The Petroleum Club

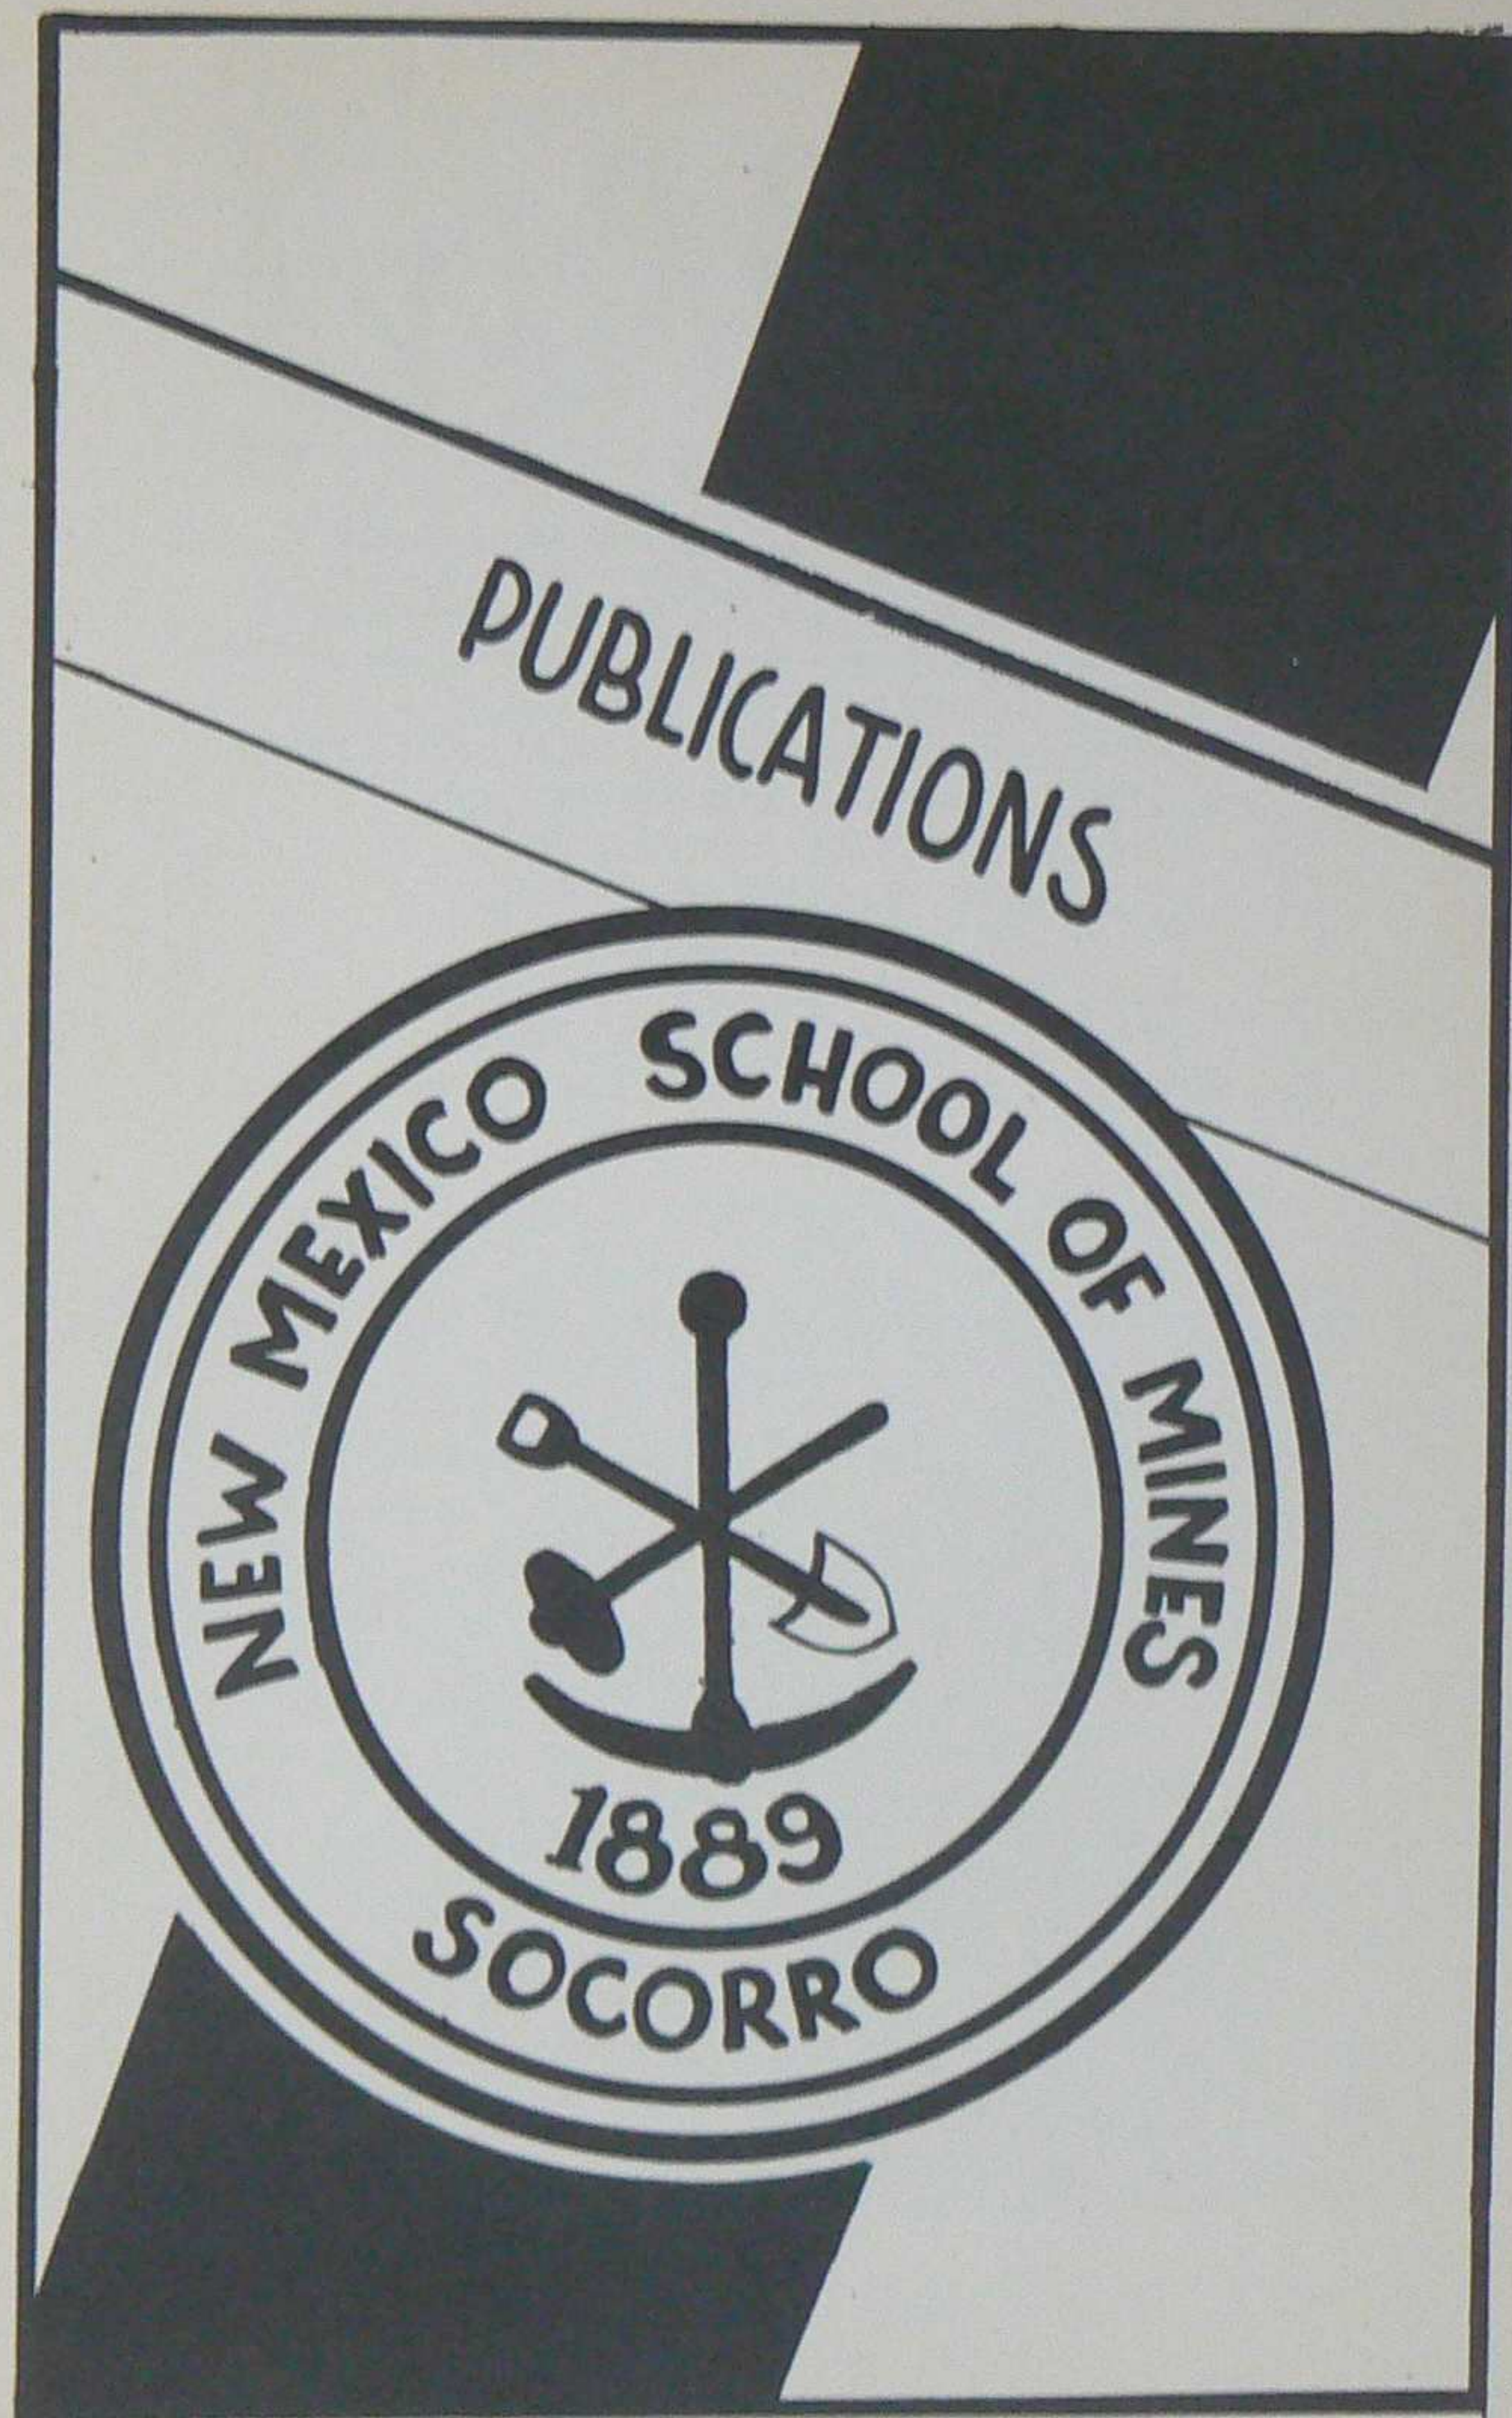

Clarence Folsom
Sponsor

One of the most recent clubs on the campus and is participating in an active way toward the advancement of the Petroleum department. Its large membership assures it a long and prosperous life.
